

Job Title : Livestock Officer
No of Posts : 4
Station Head quarter : Latur, Dharashiv, Pune
Educational Qualification : B.V.Sc. / Dip. In Dairy & Animal Husbandry

Experience: 3-5 years in planning & implementation of Animal Husbandry based Livelihoods activities & Micro enterprise development initiatives for the poor rural households. The candidates having experiences of providing veterinary services to dairy, goatry & poultry animal will be given preference.

Job Profile

- Conduct ToT and Trainings to livestock rearing households on Animal Husbandry Practices in Dairy, Goatry & Poultry farming
- Awareness creation amongst the villagers regarding promotion of high yielding varieties by organizing camps, formal and informal trainings.
- Village level camp organization for awareness creation regarding protective measures to control animal diseases.
- Introduction and promotion of nutritious fodder amongst the farmers.
- Design and development of training material like posters, pamphlets and booklets on Poultry, Goatry & Dairy farming.
- Observe animals for signs of illness, injury, or unusual behaviour; notifying veterinarians or managers as warranted.
- Monitor animal care, maintenance, or breeding; or packing and transfer activities to ensure work is done correctly.
- Train pashusakhis in animal care procedures, maintenance duties, and safety precautions.
- Treat animal illnesses or injuries, following experience or instructions of veterinarians.
- Feeding and treatment of animals, and cleaning and maintenance of cattle shed
- Study feed, weight, health, genetic, or milk production records in order to determine feed formula and rations and breeding schedules.
- Plan budgets and arrange for purchase of animals, feed, or supplies.
- Inseminate livestock artificially to produce desired offspring.

Compensation: INR 5.00 to 6.00 Per Annum (including Social Benefits). It will be commensurate with qualification, skills and experience as per the sector norms.